THE SOUTH GUJARAT UNIVERSITY (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1993.

GUJARAT BILL NO. 1 OF 1993.

A BILL

to amend the South Gujarat University Act, 1965.

It is hereby enacted in the Forty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows :—

1. This Act may be called the South Gujarat University (Amendment) Act, 1993.

Short title.

Guj. 38 of 1965.

Amendment
of section

38 of 1965.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

As a college teaching courses leading to a diploma does not come within the definition of the term "college" given in clause (3) of section 2 of the South Gujarat University Act, 1965, such a college cannot apply for affiliation to the University. Guj. VI
of 1962.

2. In the Gujarat Panchayats Act, 1961 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Act"), in section 20, in sub-section (5), for the words "four months", the words "two months" shall be substituted.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken under the principal Act as amended by the said Ordinance shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the principal Act as amended by this Act.

Repeal
and savings.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Sub-section (5) of section 20 of the Gujarat Panchayats Act, 1961 empowers the competent authority to alter the limits of any ward of the gram or nagar and the State Government to alter the limits of the territorial constituency of the taluka or district, for the purpose of general elections to the panchayats. But such alterations, as provided therein, can be made at any time not later than four months before the date of expiry of the term of a panchayat. As the population figures of the last census of 1991 were expected to be made available in the month of December 1992, the Gujarat Panchayats (Amendment) Ordinance, 1992 was promulgated to amend sub-section (5) of section 20 of the said Act to reduce the said period of four months to two months so that it would have been possible to effect such alteration for the purpose of elections of panchayats in the month of February, 1993.

Since the period of four months is pretty long and may cause undue delay in holding elections, it is considered necessary to reduce the said period of four months to two months for such alteration, as and when occasion for election arises. This Bill seeks to replace the said Ordinance by an Act of the State Legislature to achieve the aforesaid object.

The following bill which was introduced on the 18th February, 1993 by Shri Jaynarayan Vyas M.L.A. is published under Rule 127-A of the Gujarat Legislative Assembly Rules, for general information.

"GUJARAT BILL NO. 3 OF 1992.

THE GUJARAT PUBLIC SECTOR UNDERTAKINGS TERM DEPOSIT MANAGEMENT BILL, 1992.

A BILL

to provide for regulation of short/long term deposits being deposited by the Public Sector Undertakings in the State of Gujarat and for matters connected therewith

It is hereby enacted in the Forty Third Year of the Republic of India, as follows:—

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(i) "Public Sector Undertakings" means any board or corporation constituted by the State Government under any Central or State Act and includes any Company registered under the Indian Companies Act, 1956 in which the equity held by the State Govt. is not less than fifty percent or any board or corporation whose management is controlled by the State Govt. and the State Govt. has an authority to appoint Chairman or Directors or Members or Officers on the Board for its management.

Investment

3. (1) The Public Sector Undertakings shall, on and after the commencement of this Act, invest the moneys in long or short term deposits with the State Govt. in such proportion and in such manner as may be prescribed by rules.

(2) The rules made under sub-section (1), shall be subject to finalisation after previous publication in the Official Gazette inviting suggestions and objections from the Public.

Power to make rules.

4. (1) The State Govt. may by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) All rules made under this Act shall be laid for not less than thirty days before the State Legislature as soon as after they are made, and shall be subject to rescission by the State Legislature, or to such modification as the State Legislature may make during the session in which they are so laid or the Session immediately following.

(3) Any rescission or modification so made by the State Legislature shall be published in the Official Gazette and shall thereupon take effect.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The State Govt. is increasingly finding it difficult to mobilise its resources for development programmes. The extent and the duration of overdraft by the State Govt. is on increase. On the otherhand, the public sector undertakings have large sums of money available with them, which is being invested without any regulation by the State Govt. or with any development objectives in mind. This Bill, therefore seeks to provide for regulation of such moneys available with the public sector undertakings for optimum use of such funds for the furtherance of State Govt. objectives of development.

Provided that any order made or action taken under the rules so repealed shall be deemed to have been made or taken under the corresponding provisions of this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Article 309 of the Constitution of India, authorises the State Legislatures to make law for regulating the recruitment and conditions of service of persons appointed to the public services. Proviso to Article 309 provides that until any law is made by the State Legislature the matters may be regulated by rules to be made by the Governor. Thus the provision for regulating the service matters by rules appears to be transitory. The present set-up of rules made under proviso to article 309 are not conducive to the healthy growth of the Secretariat. Existing policy of the Government in relation to the appointment of dependent of the deceased government servant is governed under Government Resolution and it is experienced that its implementation is not so effective. In most of the cases, such appointment takes 5 to 10 years. At present, there are so many cases pending before the Government, in absence of appropriate Legislation.

The Supreme Court of India, in Civil Appeal No. 3642 of 1989 (AIR 1989, Supreme Court—1976) observed that in all claims for appointments on compassionate ground, there should not be any delay in appointment. The purpose of providing appointment on compassionate ground is to mitigate the hardship due to death of the bread earner in the family. Such appointment should, therefore, be provided immediately to redeem the family in distress. It is improper to keep such case pending for year. If there is no suitable post for appointment, supernumerary post should be created to accommodate the applicant.

It is, therefore, necessary to enact a Legislation for smooth and healthy running of administration.

Hence this Bill.

Sub-clause (2) of clause 4, empowers the Government to make rules for specifying methods for filling posts, determining proportion of vacancies to be filled and to specify the class of officers and conditions for promotions.

The following Bill which was introduced on the 18th February, 1993 by Shri Umedbhai F. Gohel, M.L.A. is published under Rule 127-A of the Gujarat Legislative Assembly Rules for general information.

Gujarat Bill No. 5 of 1993.

A BILL

further to amend the Saurashtra Felling of Trees (Infliction of Punishment) Act, 1951.

2. In the Saurashtra Felling of Trees (Infliction of Punishment) Act, 1951, in section 3, for sub-section (2) the following sub-section shall be substituted namely:—

“(2) Nothing contained in sub-section (1) shall apply to—

(a) the felling, appropriating or damaging any branch of babool tree for the purpose of using it or causing it to be used for cleaning teeth,

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The farmers in Gujarat who cannot afford to use teak-wood for rafters or support pillars in their houses or huts, have to use babool wood. Some poor farmers also use babool wood for making agricultural implements. However, under the existing provisions of the Saurashtra Felling of Trees (Infliction of Punishment) Act, 1951, the farmers are not allowed to utilize the babool wood even from their own babool trees without permission except for cleaning the teeth. It is, therefore, necessary to provide that the farmers need not take permission for felling, appropriating or damaging their own babool trees for the agricultural or household purposes.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

This Bill seeks to amend the Gujarat Sales Tax Act, 1969 with a view to giving effect to the proposals contained in the Budget speech of the Finance Minister in the Legislative Assembly on the 17th February, 1993.

An opportunity is also taken to amend certain provisions of the Act for smooth implementation of the provisions of the Act.

The following notes on clauses explain the important provisions of the Bill:—

Clause 2.—This clause seeks to amend section 10A. With a view to mobilizing additional resources, it is proposed to introduce a new slab of turnover tax at the rate of 2 per cent. on the turnover exceeding Rs. eight crores.

Sales or resales of goods against certificate as provided in section 13 would henceforth be liable to turnover tax. Likewise, sales of goods wholly or partially exempt from payment of tax under section 49(2) would also be liable to turnover tax.

Clause 3.—This clause seeks to amend section 13. At present, a licensed dealer can purchase goods against prescribed form/declaration for resale in the course of inter-State trade or in the course of export; and such goods are to be resold by himself or by another licensed dealer to whom he resales the goods. A similar facility is also available to a commission agent. It has been noticed that some dealers misuse facility of form meant for inter-State transaction by effecting sales of such goods, within the State. It is, therefore, considered necessary to allow the use of facility of form only in respect of purchases made by a dealer for the inter-State sale to be made by him or his commission agent but not by others.

Clause 4.—This clause seeks to amend section 54. At present if the dealer is not given the amount of refund within the period prescribed in section 54, the Government is required to pay interest at the rate of twenty-four per cent from the date of expiry of specified period till the date of refund. But, such dealer is not entitled to get any interest for the period prior to the date of the order of refund. With a view to grant benefit of interest on refund for the prior period also, it is proposed to amend section 54 in such a manner that the dealer is made entitled to interest at the rate of fourteen per cent. in respect of the period beginning from the date immediately following the date of closure of the accounting year to which the said amount relates till the date of order of assessment. The same rate of fourteen per cent. is proposed to apply for the delayed refund.

Clause 5.—This clause seeks to amend section 55A to provide for different rates of composition, as may be fixed by notification, in respect of works contract, so that the Government can fix different rates of composition keeping in view the rates of sales tax on the commodities involved in the works contract.

Clause 6.—New section 55B proposed to be inserted by this clause seeks to introduce a new scheme of option of payment of lump-sum by way of composition, instead of tax payable, by the dealers engaged in the specified sale of hiring of Shamiyana at the rate or rates that may be fixed by the Government.

Clauses 9, 10 and 11.—These clauses seek to amend various entries in Schedules I and II in pursuance of the Budget speech of the Finance Minister on the 17th February, 1993.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

This Bill seeks to amend the Gujarat Entertainments Tax Act, 1977 with a view to giving effect to the proposals contained in the Budget speech of the Finance Minister in the Legislative Assembly on the 17th February, 1993.

Since the scheme for the payment of consolidated tax applicable to the villages, and towns having the population upto 30 thousand found smoother and convenient for operation, it is considered necessary to extend this scheme to the villages, towns and urban areas having population upto three lacs.

The technological development led to wide spread use of cable television network and transmitting T. V. programmes through satellite communications by use of disc-antenna. The television sets hooked to disc-antenna receive national and inter-national programme which include news, serials, movies, different kinds of films and shows which provide variety of entertainments relayed round the clock. The operators or proprietors who provide such entertainment through cable television or disc-antenna cable network have flourishing business. With a view to augment the revenue of the State, it is proposed to levy tax annually on the entertainment provided through cable television, disc-antenna at the fixed rate per cable connection.

Clause 2.—This clause mainly defines the terms antenna, cable television and proprietor.

Clause 3.—This clause seeks to amend sub-section (5) of section 6 of the Act with a view to extend the facility of the payment of consolidated tax at the rates prescribed in the Schedule-I, to the villages, towns and urban areas having population upto three lacs.

Clause 4.—(i) Section 6B proposed to be inserted by this clause provide for levy of tax annually on the proprietor providing entertainments through cable television and disc-antenna at a rate of Rs. 120/— per cable connection in urban area and Rs. 60/— in other areas.

(ii) section 6C proposed to be inserted by this clause provides for manner and method of obtaining Certificate of Registration by the proprietor from the Collector of the Entertainments Tax.

(2) It extends to the whole of the state of Gujarat.

STATEMENTS OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Sections 15, 16 of the Bombay Prohibition Act, 1949 prohibits an import, export of sweet toddy and tapping of toddy. Section 32 provides for licences for tapping for neera. Section 61 provides for control of export, import, transport, sell or possession of molasses. Section 64 and 64-A prohibits possession of rotten gur in excess of prescribed limit and regulates manufacture, use or consumption of rotten gur.

The main job of the persons living in tribal areas are tapping of toddy and selling of neera. They also use molasses and rotten gur for their medical purposes. The aforesaid sections prohibit them doing so and therefore, they become victim of the said sections. The tribal people being illiterate they do not know the details of the provisions of the Act, In the tribal areas, people use the aforesaid products and commodities for medical purposes.

Restrictions imposed by the aforesaid sections have created much hardships to the people living in tribal areas. For the development of tribal areas, and for the upliftment of the tribal people it is expedient to liberalise the aforesaid provisions of the Act, by deletion of the aforesaid sections.

This Bill seeks to achieve the aforesaid objects.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

It has been observed that in case of partition, transfer of land is not permitted and entries are not certified under the existing provisions of the Bombay Tenancy and Agricultural Lands Act, 1948. On account of the said provisions in the statute book brothers cannot get right over the land which they are entitled to get as ancestral property. It is therefore, absolutely necessary to provide that in case of partition, there should not be any bar to the land being transferred in the name of the claimants of the hereditary right irrespective of the size of the land and hence this Bill.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

It is noticed that after the fixation of the block, the owner of the land in such block cannot transfer or sub-divide the land in favour of his successor-in-interest, without the permission of the Collector. During the passage of time, it is noticed that the Collector neither gives such permission for years together nor makes any entry in the records of land. In order to alleviate such hardship it is proposed to amend the said Act. This Bill, therefore, seeks to achieve the aforesaid object.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken under the principal Act as amended by the said Ordinance shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the principal Act as amended by this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Section 13A of the Representation of the People Act, 1950 empowers the Election Commission to designate an officer of the State Government to be a Chief Electoral Officer for the State for the purpose of election to the House of People and the Legislature of the State. The Election Commission has strongly urged the State Government that the Chief Electoral Officer so appointed by the Commission should not be entrusted with any other work by the State Government. According to sub-clause (c) of clause (84) of section 2 of the Gujarat Panchayats Act, 1961, the Chief Electoral Officer for the State of Gujarat is also the Election Authority for the purpose of election to the taluka panchayats and the district panchayats. In order to relieve the Chief Electoral Officer of the State from the work of the election to the taluka panchayats and district panchayats as desired by the Election Commission and to empower the State Government to appoint in his place any other officer not below the rank of Secretary to the Government as an Election Authority for the purposes of election to the taluka panchayats and the district panchayats, it was considered necessary to amend the said clause (84) of section 2 of the Panchayats Act.

Sub-section (1) of section 312 of the Panchayats Act provides that for the purpose of constituting district panchayat for the district of Dangs, the State Government shall divide the gram panchayats into groups and the number of such groups shall not exceed ten and each group shall consist of not more than eight grams. It was also considered necessary to amend sub-section (1) of section 312 to make the intention clear that such group shall consist of gram panchayats.

As the Gujarat Legislative Assembly was not in session, the Gujarat Panchayats (Amendment) Ordinance, 1993 was promulgated to amend the Gujarat Panchayats Act, 1961 to achieve the aforesaid objects. This Bill seeks to replace the said Ordinance by an Act of the State Legislature.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken under the principal Act as amended by the said Ordinance shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the principal Act as amended by this Act.

Guj. Ord.
1 of
1993.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Section 129 of the Bombay Provincial Municipal Corporations Act, 1949 provides for the levying of the water tax as well as the conservancy tax on buildings and lands in the City. The Municipal Corporations have to incur huge amounts for providing necessary water and other conservancy amenities. As against the expenditure incurred for providing these amenities, the income derived by way of taxes is meagre. The said section 129 prescribes minimum rate of water tax at Rs. 5/- per mensem for non-residential and Rs. 3/- for residential premises and Rs. 2/- per mensem as conservancy tax which are not adequate to cover the cost of such amenities. Moreover, it does not empower the Corporation to raise the said minimum rate of tax from time to time. In order to enable Corporations to meet with the development expenditure for providing water and conservancy facilities and to augment their financial resources, it was considered necessary to amend the said section 129 so as to empower the Corporation to fix, subject to the previous sanction of the State Government, the minimum rate of tax. It was also considered necessary to empower the Corporations to fix different rates of minimum tax for different classes of properties. It had been further provided that while fixing the minimum rate of tax, the Corporations can not fix lesser than minimum amount of water tax of Rs. 3/- per mensem for residential premises and Rs. 5/- for other premises and not less than Rs. 2/- per mensem as conservancy tax.

As the Gujarat Legislative Assembly was not in session, the Bombay Provincial Municipal Corporations (Gujarat Amendment) Ordinance, 1993 was promulgated to amend the said Act to achieve the aforesaid objects. This Bill seeks to replace the said Ordinance by an Act of the State Legislature.

NARHARI AMIN.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

The Bill involves delegation of legislative powers in the following respects:-

Clause 2—Clauses (a) and (b) of section 129 proposed to be substituted by this clause empowers the Municipal Corporation to levy the water tax and the conservancy tax at such percentage as corporation may determine. It also empowers the corporation to fix minimum amount of such tax with the previous sanction of State Government and different minima may be fixed for different classes of properties.

The delegation of legislative powers as aforesaid is necessary and is of a normal character.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

In order to take power to the people and to strengthen the set up of local-self government, the Constitution (Seventy-third Amendment) Act, 1992 for rural areas and the Constitution (Seventy-fourth Amendment) Act, 1992 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act) for urban areas, have been enacted. The latter Act has become effective from June 1, 1993. The salient features of the said Act are as follows :—

(1) It provides for the constitution of three types of local authorities for urban areas—a nagar panchayat for a transitional area, a municipality for a smaller urban area and a municipal corporation for a larger urban area.

(2) (a) It provides that among the seats to be filled by direct election, seats shall be reserved for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes in proportion to their population in the area, and that one-third of the seats so reserved shall be further reserved for women belonging to such castes.

(b) One-third of the total number of seats to be filled by direct election (including seat reserved in favour of women belonging to the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes) shall be reserved for women.

(c) the reservation in favour of backward class citizens is optional.

(d) the reservation in favour of Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and women in the posts of Chairpersons is also mandatory. However, the reservation of such posts in favour of backward classes is optional.

(3) The duration of the elected body is to be five years and no longer. Elections to constitute a new body shall have to be completed before the expiry of the duration of a body.

(4) The elected bodies may be dissolved after affording a reasonable opportunity before its dissolution. However, fresh elections to constitute a new body shall have to be held within six months of such dissolution.

(5) In the case of urban areas with a population of more than three lakhs, wards committees shall have to be formed for one or more wards. The composition and the areas of the ward committees may be decided by the State Government.

(6) A Finance Commission to be constituted by the State shall make recommendations regarding the principles that should govern the distribution of the net proceeds of taxes, duties, etc. leviable by the State between the State and the municipalities, the grants that could be made to the municipalities and such other matters.

(7) The superintendence, direction and control of the elections to the municipal bodies shall be with a State Election Commission constituted under article 243K of the Constitution of India.

(8) Any provisions in the State laws inconsistent with the aforesaid constitutional provisions become invalid on the expiry of one year from the commencement of the Constitution (Seventy-fourth Amendment) Act, 1992 i. e. from June 1, 1993 unless sooner amended or repealed by the State Legislature. The municipalities existing on June 1, 1993 can continue till the expiration of their duration. However, the State legislature can dissolve them sooner by a resolution passed to that effect.

The following notes on clauses explain important provisions of the Bill:—

Clause 2 : This clause seeks to define certain words incorporated in the Act on the lines of constitutional amendment.

Clause 4 : The existing sub-section(3) of section 3A empowers the State Government either to appoint a councillor or to hold election for additional members where some area has been included in the city. By this clause the powers to appoint additional councillor has been removed from the existing provision and the additional members to the Corporation by elections only.

Clause 5 : This clause substitutes the existing sub-section (2) to (4) of section 5 and inserts new sub-section (2) to (8) in its place.

(1) New sub-section (2) provides that seats of councillors to the Corporations shall be filled by direct election.

(ii) Sub-section(3) provides that where general election is to be held after declaration of any area as larger Urban area or as per last census figures or after alteration of limits of City, the State Government shall determine the number of wards, number of councillors and seats reserved for Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, Backward Class and Women for the purposes of election. Thereafter, the Election Commission shall determine the boundaries of wards and allocation of seats reserved for Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, Backward Class and Women.

(iii) Sub-sections(4) to (8) provides for reservation of seats. The reservation of seats for the Scheduled Caste, Scheduled Tribe, Backward Classes and Women are on the lines of the Constitutional Amendment. The seats of Councillors for the Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribes in the Corporation shall be as nearly as the same proportion to the total number of seats to be filled by direct election in the Corporation as the population of the Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe in the city. The seats so reserved shall be allotted by rotation to the different wards. one-tenth of the total number of seats is to be reserved for backward classes. The provision has also been made to reserve one-third of the total number of seats for women which is also to be allotted by rotation to different wards. Out of total number of seats reserved for the Scheduled Caste, Scheduled Tribe and for backward classes, one-third shall be reserved for women belonging to Scheduled Caste, Scheduled Tribe and Backward classes. The reservation of such seats other than women shall cease to have effect after the period prescribed in Article 334 of the Constitution of India.

Clause 6 : This clause proposes to insert new Section 6, 6A, 6B and 6C in the Act.
(1) Section 6 provides for duration of Corporation. It shall be for a period of 5 years and no longer. When a Corporation is reconstituted after dissolution, the duration of such Corporation shall be only for the remainder period.

(2) Proposed new section 6A provides the term of office of the Councillors which shall be co-extensive with the duration of corporation.

(3) Proposed new Section 6B provides for election to constitute a Corporation. It become necessary to hold election to constitute a Corporation before expiration of its period of five years and in a case of dissolution, before expiration of six months. Where the duration of dissolved corporation is less than 6 months, it will not be necessary to hold election.

(4) New Section 6C provides for transitory provisions. The term of councillors of the Corporation which has already expired or is due to expire within one year from the date of amendment proposed in the Act, the election to reconstitute such corporation will have to be held in accordance with the amendment made in the Act. Taking into consideration the census figures of 1991, the number of wards and territorial area of wards and number of councillors of the Corporation are to be decided afresh. Reservation for seats to Scheduled Caste, Scheduled Tribes and Backward Classes is required to be provided. Besides, one-third of the total number of seats of the Councillors so determined will have to be reserved for women as per the Constitutional mandate. The power to conduct the election is at present vested with Municipal Commissioner but the same powers now are required to be vested in the State Election Commissioner to be appointed by the Governor. This is a time consuming process. The provision is, therefore, made in this clause about the Corporations of which the term has already been expired or is due to expire within one year of the amendment to the Act, the election of such Corporation shall have to be held within one year and in accordance with the amended Law.

Clause 7 : This clause proposes to amend Section 7A which provides that where the duration of the Corporation already expired or is due to expire during the transitory period as referred to under Section 6C, and the election to constitute Corporation could not be completed before expiration of its duration or for unforeseen reasons like natural calamities, riots, disturbances, the election could not be held the power has been given to State Government to appoint Administrator to manage the affairs of the Corporation.

Clause 8 : The existing Section 9 provides that a person who has enrolled as a voter for the ward is qualified to be a councillor. The age of 18 years is one of the qualifications for voters. As per the Constitutional Amendment, a person below 21 years is disqualified to be chosen as a Councillor in the Corporation and hence a provision has been made in section 9 by this clause so that the voter who had attained the age of 21 years can be qualified to be councillor.

Clause 9. This clause adds one more disqualification in section 10 for being a councillor. If any person is disqualified under any law for election of legislative assembly of the State, he would also disqualify for being a councillor.

Clause 10 : This clause amends section 14. The powers of superintendence, direction and control of preparation of electoral rolls and conducts of election shall be vested in the State Election Commission. The election for the Councillors of Corporation shall be held in accordance with the rules framed by the State Government. The State Election Commission shall be appointed within two months from coming into force of the Amendment made in the Act. As per the constitutional requirement, a provision has been made that the State Government shall make available to the State Election Commission the staff required for discharging its functions. The Election Commissioners shall commence the work of delimitation of the wards within one month from his appointment. The provisions of section 7 of the Bombay General Clauses Act, 1904 shall not apply to anything done or suffered under the provisions repealed or substituted by the amended Act. The election of the Corporation henceforth shall be held in accordance with the provisions of the amended Act.

Clause 11 : This is consequential amendment.

Clause 12 : This clause amends section 19 which provides for reservation of office of the Mayor in the same proportion as provided in section 5 for Scheduled Caste, Scheduled Tribe, Backward Classes and for Women in the prescribed manner.

Clause 13 : This clause inserts new section 29A which provides for constitution of wards Committee where a population of city is more than 3 lakhs. The wards Committee has to be constituted from the councillors of the Corporation representing a ward and such other members not exceeding 5 as may be nominated by the State Government. The duration of Wards Committee shall be co-extensive with the duration of the Corporation and powers and duties of such Committee and the areas of such committee shall be defined by the rules to be framed by the State Government.

Clauses 14 and 15.—These clauses insert new items in sections 63 and 66, as per the amendment made in the Constitution.

Clause 16.—This clause inserts new section 126AA which provides that Finance Commission constituted under article 243-I shall review the financial position of the Corporation and shall make recommendation in regard to distribution between State and Corporation of the net proceeds of taxes, duties, etc. leviable by State; determination of taxes, etc. which may be assigned to the Corporation and grant-in-aid to the Corporation from the Consolidated Fund of the State. The Commission may also recommend the measures for improving the financial position of the Corporation. The recommendation so made by the Commission shall have to be laid before the State Legislature.

Clause 17.—The existing section 126 provides the grants to be made by the State Government to the Corporation on the basis of recommendation of the Gujarat Municipal Board. Since the Finance Commission is to be constituted as per constitutional amendment, now recommendation is to be made by the Finance Commission instead of Board. This clause amends section accordingly.

Clause 18.—The existing section 452 provides for supersession of the Corporation. Since Constitutional amendment provides for the dissolution of the Corporation only, the consequential amendment has been made accordingly in section 452. In case of dissolution of the Corporation, election to reconstitute such Corporation shall be held within a period of six months.

Clause 19.—This clause amends section 454 with a view that alteration and amendments of Rules made by Corporation should also be consistent with the Rules made by the State Government under the Act.

Clause 20.—This clause amends section 456 which seeks to empower the State Government to frame Rules for matters which required by Act to be prescribed by Rules.

Clauses 21 and 23 —Since the powers of superintendence, control and direction of election is now vested in the State Election Commission, the existing rules in Schedule A and in section 457 so far as they relate to conduct of election have been proposed to be deleted by this clauses.

Clause 22 —This is consequential amendment in Appendix IV appended to the Act.

The period to appoint authorities mentioned in rules 22 of appendix IV has been reduced to one year

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

This Bill seeks to replace the Gujarat Panchayats Act, 1961 by incorporating provisions as required by part IX of the Constitution of India inserted by the Constitution (Seventy-third Amendment) Act,, 1992.

Article 243N in the said Part allows the continuation of the provision of any law relating to panchayats in force in a State which are inconsistent with the provisions of Part IX, only for a period of one year from the commencement of Constitution. (Seventy-third Amendment) Act, 1992, that is upto 11th of April, 1994. It is, therefore, incumbent upon the State to enact legislation with a view to amending the law relating to panchayats so as to bring it in conformity with the provisions of the said Part IX before 11th April, 1994. It has, therefore, become necessary to bring the law relating to panchayats in the State in conformity with the said Part IX and for that purpose this Bill seeks to replace the Gujarat Panchayats Act, 1961.

The following are the salient features of the Bill :

(1) The three-tier system of Panchayati Raj Organisation is maintained by providing panchayats at the village, taluka and district levels. The institution of Nagar Panchayats does not now form part of the three-tier panchayat organisation as according to the said Part IX, the nagar being a transitional area within the meaning of Part X of the Constitution, would have a nagar panchayat under the fold of Municipal Organisation.

(2) While providing for the constitution of village panchayats, taluka panchayats, and district panchayats, the ratio between the population of the territorial area of the panchayat and the number of seats to be filled by election in each level of panchayat has been so far as practicable kept the same throughout the State.

(3) Similarly, provision is made for division of territorial constituencies in such a manner that the ratio between the population of the constituency and the number of seats allotted to it has been so far as practicable kept the same throughout the panchayat area.

(4) Provision is made for reservation of seats for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes according to the proportion of their population to the total population in the panchayat area.

Commensurate with the provision relating to reservation of seats for the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes, provision is also made for reservation of ten percent of seats for the socially and educationally backward classes of persons in the panchayat area.

(5) Provision is also made for reservation of one third of the total number of seats reserved for the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and socially and educationally backward class for women belonging to the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and socially and educationally backward class.

(6) Provision is also made for reservation of one third of the total number of seats to be filled in by direct election for women.

(7) Similarly, provision is made for reservation of offices of the chairpersons in panchayats at village, taluka and district level for the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and socially and educationally backward classes.

(8) Provision is made for election of Sarpanch by members of the Village Panchayat from amongst themselves.

(9) A new chapter is introduced with a view to provide for the preparation of plans for economic development and social justice by the panchayat at each level and also for entrusting schemes for economic development and social justice to the panchayats for their implementation.

(10) Provision is also made for constitution of a Finance Commission to review the financial position of the panchayats at each level. The work relating to the division of wards and territorial constituencies, preparation and maintenance of electoral rolls and the conduct of elections of panchayats has been entrusted to the State Election Commission.

Opportunity has been taken to amend the law V-EXTRA-71 relating to panchayats in the following respects:

17-4-93

(11) It has been the experience that although it is optional for a person to approach the Nyaya Panchayats or courts for remedying the grievances, nobody takes recourse to the nyaya panchayat. Hence provisions relating to constitution of conciliation panch and nyaya panchayats and their functions and powers in the present Act have been omitted.

(12) Provision relating to specified area and special provisions for districts of Gandhinagar and Dangs are also omitted from the present Act as they have become inconsistent with the provisions of Part IX of the Constitution.

(13) A provision relating to the Gramdan are also omitted from the present Act as they have become redundant in the present scenario.

(14) Provisions relating to inclusion of associate members in the constitution of panchayats have been omitted from the present Act.

(15) Provision is made requiring panchayats to pass their budget on or before the 31st March of the current year; and non passing of the budget by that date could invite supersession or dissolution of panchayat.

(16) The Taluka Development Officer has been empowered to remove, obstruction or encroachment in a village in case of failure to do so by a village panchayat.

Bill introduced in the Gujarat Legislative Assembly.

The following Bill which was introduced on the 12th August, 1993 by Shri Jaynarayan Vyas, M. L. A. is published under rule 124-A of the Gujarat Legislative Assembly Rules for general information :—

Gujarat Bill No. 26 of 1993.

THE NORTH GUJARAT UNIVERSITY (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1993

A BILL

further to amend the North Gujarat University Act, 1986.

It is hereby enacted in the Forty-fourth year of the Republic of India as follows :

1 (1) This Act may be called The North Gujarat University (Amendment) Act, 1993.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. In the North Gujarat University Act, 1986, for section 48, following shall be substituted, namely :

“48. (1) All post graduate instruction, teaching and training within the University area shall be conducted by the University at its Headquarters.

(2) Until the University establishes a department for post-graduate instruction, teaching and training in respect of any subject for the purpose mentioned in sub-section (1), it shall continue to maintain the University Centres existing immediately before the commencement of this Act of such instruction, teaching and training in that subject.

(3) If the University has established a department for post graduate instruction, training and teaching at any place other than the head quarters or the University Centre established by the Gujarat University before the commencement of this Act, it shall immediately be discontinued and shifted to the head quarters or the University centre as the case may be.

Short title and commencement.

Substitution of Section 48 of Guj XXII of 1986.

Guj.
XXII
of 1986,

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, “University Centre” shall mean a centre established by the Gujarat University immediately before the commencement of this Act, where post-graduate studies are imparted as determined by the Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations of the Gujarat University made in this behalf”.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

In the original Act the North Gujarat University Act, 1986 enacted by the State Assembly it was provided that all the post graduate departments will be established at the head quarters of the University. However, by making an amendment in the aforesaid Act in 1990 it was provided that the departments of the University can be established at any place as may be prescribed by the Statute of the University. In view of this provision, the University has started establishing its post graduate centres at different places of the University area, which makes the University difficult to control the functioning of the post graduate centres. It is always emphasised that the academic leadership should be provided by the University itself. But as the Departments are at remote places, it is difficult for the University to provide such leadership. In case of Gujarat University, the post graduate departments have been established by the University near the University campus. With a view to have this type of department in the North Gujarat University headquarters, it is necessary to replace the present Section 48 of the North Gujarat University Act, 1986.

Hence this Bill.

Bill Introduced in the Gujarat Legislative Assembly.

The following Bill which was introduced on the 12th August, 1993 by Shri Jaynarayan Vyas, M. L. A. is published under rule 127-A of the Gujarat Legislative Assembly Rules for general information :—

Gujarat Bill No. 27 of 1993.

THE GUJARAT SALES TAX (AMENDMENT) BILL 1993.

A BILL

further to amend the Gujarat Sales Tax Act, 1969.

It is hereby enacted in the Forty-fourth year of the Republic of India as follows :

1 (1) This Act may be called the Gujarat Sales Tax (Amendment) Act, 1993.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

Short title and commencement.

Guj. I of 1970.

2. In the Gujarat Sales Tax Act, 1969, in section 49—

(1) in sub-section (2), the following proviso shall be added at the end, namely:—

“Provided that no notification referred to in this sub-section shall be issued in respect of a dealer.”

Amendment of section
49 of
Guj. I
of 1970.

(2) for sub section (3), the following shall be substituted, namely :—

“(3) Every notification issued under subsection (2) shall have the same force and effect as an amendment to this Act and shall remain in force for a period of six months unless it is adopted by the State Legislature on a substantive motion.”

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Sub-section (2) of section 49 empowers the State Government to exempt, by notification in the Official Gazette, any specified class of sales or of specified sales or purchase from payment of the whole or any part of the tax payable under the Gujarat Sales Tax Act, 1969. The practice of issuing tax concessions by way of a notification issued under section 49(2) severely damages the authority of the Legislature. It is learnt that over 200 notifications have been issued under this section exempting from the payment of tax to the tune of crores of rupees. This adversely affects the ways and means position of the State. No doubt it is appreciable if the exemption is given for the class of industries. But in some cases the exemption has been given for an individual units also. The Sales Tax study team appointed by the State Government have also pointed out that notification under section 49(2) very sparingly be used and only when the alternative of amending the schedule cannot be availed of. It is also learnt that most of the notifications have been issued after the budget is passed by the Assembly. In principle all changes in the tax rate should come as a part of the annual Budget proposals and should be effective from the beginning of the financial year. Piece meal relief through notification is not proper. With a view to curb the Government power of issuing this type of notification, an amendment is proposed in Section 49 of the Gujarat Sales Tax Act, 1969. Hence, this Bill.

Regulations.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

In the areas of North Gujarat, the rivers are not perennial and, therefore, it is not possible to provide canal irrigation. In absence of canal irrigation, the agriculture has to rely on the underground water and for this reason day by day the number of tube-wells are being increased. It is therefore obviously seen that the underground water level is going down day by day. It is also apprehended that in some areas of North Gujarat, the quantum of underground water is going to be exhausted in a couple of ensuing years. The potable water is also not provided for the purpose of drinking and the people of this area have to rely on the available underground water which consists of floride and other dissolved impurities which in turn cause serious health hazards. No systematic programme has been undertaken by the State Government for the recharge of the underground water. With a view to overcome this serious problem, it is suggested to establish the North Gujarat Underground Water Recharge Authority which will look after this problem and undertake the schemes.

Hence this Bill.
